CHARITON COURIER

G. P. VANDIVER, ED. AND PROP.

KEYTESVILLE, - MISSOURI.

Entered at the Post-office at Keytesville, Mo., as second-class matter.

Red Front.

Go to the Red Front for groceries.

J. F. Whitesides has no stale groceries.

Come to the Red Front for cheap groceries.

The Red Front grocery store wants your trade.

If you want fresh groceries go to J. F. Whitesides.

Cash or trade paid for butter, eggs and poultry at J. F. Whitesides.

For a healthy constitution and clear brain drink Yale coffee.
C. L. WHITE.

Fresh barrel open kettle New Orleans molasses at J. F. Whitesides.

J. C. Crawley went to Huntsville Wednesday to deliver an address to the old settlers' reunion of Macon and Randolph counties.

Hon. J. W. Ownby, a Republican cohort, but from whence we know not, will speak at Keytesville Monday, Oct. 20, at 8 o'clock p. m.

Our genial young friend, W. Richards of six miles west of Keytesville has accepted a ship in Agee Bros.' clothing store in this city.

J. I. Closing Out.

Please decided to quit business Keytesville close out my $1,500 special by furniture.

A. M. BRILL.
Keytesville, Mo.

Dr. J. T. Aldridge of Keytesville has a plum tree that is industriously trying to bear its second crop this season. Some of the plums are as large as small marbles.

We have just received a carload of buggies, surreys, road wagons, etc., which we are selling at very low figures.

IGLEHART & SMITH,
Dalton, Mo.

Mrs. Eddie Stacy of near Chraneville is remodeling and building an addition to her rural domicile. When the improvements are completed she will have quite a comfortable home of seven rooms.

Mr. and Mrs. Evan Davies of five miles northwest of Keytesville are in high feather over the arrival of a fine 10-pound daughter at their house Wednesday, Oct. 1. Mother and babe are doing nicely.

Tom Lewis of five west of Keytesville returned from St. Louis Friday, where he had a tumor, which has troubled him for several years, removed from his neck. The operation promises to be a success.

C. W. Twitchell, representing the Chicago Newspaper union as successor to that veteran of the grip, Maj. W. C. B. Gillispie, was in Keytesville Monday. We found Mr. Twitchell to be quite an affable gentleman.

Hon. Jas. A. Reed, the brilliant and eloquent mayor of Kansas City, will speak at Keytesville Thursday, Oct. 23, at 1 o'clock p. m. and at Salisbury at 7:30 in the evening of the same day. Those who fail to hear Mr. Reed's speech will miss a gem of oratory.

Presiding Elder R. H. Cooper will preach at the M. E. church, South, in Keytesville Sunday night, after which the sacrament of the Lord's supper will be administered. Quarterly conference will be held Monday.

M. L. Davis of Sweden, Mo., is visiting his sisters, Mesdames Benton Culbertson and D. J. Helman of north of town. Mr. Davis was a pleasant and substantial caller at the COURIER office Wednesday.

Mrs. S. B. Agee, one of Keytesville's most estimable ladies who was stricken with paralysis two weeks ago, is, we are delighted to learn, considerably improved, and we sincerely hope that her recovery will soon be complete.

Mrs. J. W. Agee will entertain the Almeria Miller club at the home of Mrs. W. G. Agee Thursday afternoon, Oct. 23, instead of Oct. 16, as formerly intended. A large attendance is desired, as the by-laws will be strictly enforced after this meeting.

The stores of Glenn Bros. and B. F. Brewer, Jr., were burglarized at Indian Grove Monday night. A 22-calibre pistol was taken from Glenn Bros., and Mr. Brsner thinks the only thing stolen from him was a razor. Other articles may have been taken but have not been missed so far. No clue to the burglars.

Mrs. J. L. Cropper of Keytesville has been in Chicago for a week or ten days visiting relatives. She is expected home tomorrow afternoon and will be accompanied by her sister, Miss Wilhite. Mrs. Cropper's sister-in-law, Mrs. W. W. Bell of near Dalton, is keeping house for Mrs. Cropper during her absence.

We are very sorry to learn that G. T. Swain of five miles northwest of Keytesville has been very ill of paralysis of the bowels, but we are greatly rejoiced to know that he is now much improved. His son, C. T., and family came in Tuesday from Union City, Okla., to attend his father's bedside.

Monday's Kansas City Star contained a notice of the marriage license of Edgar M. DeMoss of Iowa, Kas., formerly of Keytesville, and Miss Lulu Barger, whose father conducts a hotel at Iowa. We did not learn who performed the marriage ceremony, but extend our cordial congratulations just the same.

A. J. Kendrick, an old Chariton county boy, left for his home at Pryor Creek, I. T., Monday after a visit of two months to friends and relatives. "Alf" said he came to stay two weeks, but was treated so well that he couldn't tear himself away for two months. He stopped off in Kansas City for a day or two to visit his brother, J. J. Kendrick.

Attorneys J. A. Collet of Keytesville and F. C. Sasse of Brunswick went up to Kansas City yesterday afternoon to take depositions in the far-famed Massengale-Rice steer case. The costs in this case now amount to about $3,000. The bone of contention is a bobtailed steer that was worth, at the time litigation was begun, about $22, but his steer-ship is going to cost either Rice or Massengale a good deal more money than his actual value.

Cider! Cider!

During this month I will run my cider mill every Tuesday morning; during October every Tuesday and Saturday morning; during November only Tuesday morning.
HENRY NAGEL.

C. L. White, the grocer, moved into the storeroom, owned by O. B. Anderson, one door east of the COURIER office, Tuesday. W. M. Willett, another to Keytesville's grocery merchants; will occupy the Wm. E. Hill building vacated by Mr. White. The Hill business house from which Mr. Willett moves has been rented to Dr. B. Hughes, and Madam Rumor has it that Keytesville is to have another drug store.

The editor of the COURIER and wife have received an invitation to the marriage of Miss Mildred Francis Hyde and Virgil Eugene Pace, which important epoch in the lives of the contracting couple will take place at the residence of the bride's father, H. C. Hyde of Keytesville, Wednesday, Oct. 15, 1902, at 10 o'clock a. m. The prospective bridegroom is from Palestine, Tex., where he and Mrs. Pace will be at home to their friends after November 1, 1902.

Rev. L. D. Lamkin, a brother to Chariton county's popular and efficient circuit clerk, Z. T. Lamkin, is delivering a series of sermons at the Baptist church in Keytesville this week to large, attentive and appreciative audiences. Rev. Lamkin is an eloquent and forcible speaker and holds the undivided attention of his congregation from start to finish. A pleasing and entertaining feature of these meetings is the service of song, conducted by Prof. Hunt of Kansas City. The meetings will continue during all of next week. Everybody is cordially invited.

Wanted.

We want fifty men to chop cordwood and husk corn. Apply to CUNNINGHAM & CROPPER, Keytesville, Mo.

While the editor of the COURIER was in Dalton Monday afternoon, Chas. A. Keyser, the Republican nominee for sheriff, requested us to serve notice on Sheriff F. M. Veatch, the present efficient incumbent and Democratic nominee for the sheriff's office, to vacate the sheriff's mansion by Jan. 1, 1903, as he (Keyser) was coming over to take charge on that date. With Mr. Keyser "the wish was but father to the thought." In reality he has no idea of being Chariton county's next sheriff for the best reason that could possibly be known to Republican aspirants to office in this county—he won't get votes enough.

Geo. H. Applegate of Keytesville, assistant cashier of the Farmers' bank, who was called to Shreveport, La., last week by the illness of his son, Wallace, of typhoid fever, found Wallace unable to return home, and will stay with him until he gets well. Wallace and Jimmie Lou, and his brother, went to Shreveport three weeks ago to accept employment in George M. Hearn's large mercantile establishment. Wallace was taken sick a few days after his arrival, but his case was not considered serious until it developed that he had typhoid fever. Mr. and Mrs. Applegate's youngest son, Herbert, is confined to his bed with the same malady, but we hope both will soon recover.

Cattle for Sale.

I will offer for sale for the next ten days sixty steer calves, 100 yearling steers and 120 2-year-old steers. Communicate with me by telephone or call on me at Mendon. No trouble to ship stock.

B. C. SMUTZ.
